PRACTITIONERS POOL

Liverpool City Council is looking to create, within Culture Liverpool a pool of practitioners to work with its creative teams to develop and deliver programmes for 2009 and 2010.

We are looking to identify people with varying levels of experience for the pool to produce, manage, co-ordinate and administrate a variety of creative projects for the 2009 and 2010 programmes. The type of project will vary considerably as will the work commitment required. Some projects will require support over a long period of time others will be shorter term projects.

Culture Liverpool is looking for individuals and organisations who have the relevant skills and experience to carry out the following roles;

- Artistic Directors/Creative Producers
- Producers
- Stage Managers
- Specialist Production Staff and Specialist Technical Practitioners
- Project Managers and Project Co-ordinators
- Event Support

We are looking for individual practitioners, sole traders and other small companies with named individuals, not large production companies. (Under 12 permanent full time employees).

Interested parties are required to download and complete a pre-qualification questionnaire document.

The questionnaire document may be downloaded from the Liverpool City Council website at www.liverpool.gov.uk Go to A-Z of council services, p for procurement unit, then current tenders.
