Thursdays 12th November, 19th November, 26th November, 3rd December7:30pm*Murder Mystery Night with The Usual Suspects

In Victorian times, Lord and Lady Sefton and their guests would often perform 'at home' plays for their entertainment. Our popular Murder Mystery Nights continue this dramatic tradition in the Library of Croxteth Hall. Pay bar available. Guest tickets £19.50 including light buffet. Available from the Hall Gift shop at weekends only - call in or telephone to purchase. The Christmas Carol Killer 'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the house not a creature was stirring, except for the murderer! We're checking our list, we've checked it twice and Jacob Morley has not been very nice! As people are preparing for the festive season, Mean Morley is a humbug! It won't be long before he's bumped off - but whodunnit? The miserly Ebenezer Stinge? Or maybe Mrs Fuzziwig? So deck your halls with boughs of holly and try to sort fact from fiction in our special, deliciously deadly Dickensian traditional Christmas celebration with a twist! Our spoof Murder Mystery will be a hugely enjoyable evening you won't forget. We live up to our name: we really are the most Unusual Suspects!

Venue: Croxteth Country Park.

Sunday 15th November*12 noon - 3:00pm*Cycle of Faiths

Faiths4Change, Liverpool Community Spirit, Liverpool Faith Network and Merseyside Council of Faiths are hosting a Cycle of Faiths event to launch National Interfaith Week in Liverpool. There will be a cycle trail around the park visiting places of worship adjacent to the park, so come and get out in the fresh air, get fit and learn about some of the different faiths in Liverpool. A Bike Doctor will be on hand so bring any broken bikes getting dusty in your shed, and get them going again. Local organisations supporting cycling will be on hand to give advice on local routes and bike safety. If you don't have a bike, come along anyway and try out different bikes like tandems, fold up bikes and bike trailers. If your faith community want to decorate a bike expressing your community's religious symbols you are very welcome. To ensure you get up to date details about the event contact Helen Dawson on 0151 705 2108
